New Chief Executive Officer of Minda

Roy Arnold, President of Minda Incorporated, has announced that Philip Martin, General Manager, Strategy and Assets, has tendered his resignation from Minda to pursue other opportunities.

"I want to take this opportunity, on behalf of the Board, to thank Phil and to commend him for his enormous contribution to Minda over his 17 years of service. Phil has been a major contributor to the administration of Minda and leaves behind him a lasting legacy," Mr Arnold said.

"His dedication to improving the opportunities, support and quality of life for South Australians with a intellectual disability, combined with his caring approach will be greatly missed by staff, families and clients alike," he continued.

As a result of Phil's resignation, the Board has appointed Susan McInerney, formally General Manager Operations, as Chief Executive Officer of Minda Incorporated - effective as of Monday 15 September.

Susan brings to the position an outstanding track record in senior management of large organisations and extensive experience in business management.

"On behalf of the Board, I welcome Susan to the position of Chief Executive Officer and look forward to working with her to continue providing the highest quality services to South Australians with a Intellectual disability," said Mr Arnold.

Minda Incorporated is one of South Australia's largest disability organisation and also one of the State's largest employers, with over 900 staff and over 1,100 clients in residential care, supported community living and employment.
