Trak Furniture

Trak Furniture has been specialising in Australian and New Zealand native timber furniture and gift items in South Australia since 1986.

For over 20 years, Trak Furniture has been manufacturing and assembling an extensive range of quality, timeless and affordable furniture that adds a sense of style and harmony to any living space. With an array of different but equally beautiful designs, Trak caters for all markets and customers are guaranteed of attention to detail and quality that lasts.

The South Australian business is owned and operated by Minda Incorporated and employs over 30 dedicated people with a disability in supported employment roles. Supported employees are assisted to operate specialist equipment to produce high-quality pieces of furniture and also produce component parts, which are supplied to the broader timber industry.

Our range is sold at some of Australia's best known retailers and Trak has also furnished numerous Adelaide restaurants.

Our products

At Trak Furniture, we are passionate about beautiful, quality timber furniture. In fact, Trak is one of only a few manufacturers making fully accredited bunk beds.

We specialise in:

- Solid timber bedroom suites
- Dining suites and buffets
- Occasional chairs
- Coffee and occasional tables
- Wine racks
- Book cases
- Storage and entertainment units
- Giftware and accessories.

Trak Furniture pieces are available raw, or in a variety of quality wood stains.

Our focus to remain a leading supplier of locally made, quality timber products is supported by:

- A customer service culture focused on continuous improvement
- Ensuring product compliance to industry standards
- Quality control systems
- A broad product range
- Product development and reviews in line with market demand
- A diverse range of skills and abilities
- A professional and flexible workforce
- The ability to process large volumes.

Consider selecting Trak Furniture as your manufacturing partner.

Supported Employment

All of our pieces are made by Minda supported employees. With training and support, employees learn the safety and the skills necessary for timber furniture manufacturing and assembly. Minda assists employees to gain additional training through TAFE courses specific to employment.

Trak Furniture offers supported employees a stimulating and interactive workshop, in the company of peers. Employees of Trak are given the opportunity to learn new skills and build their confidence, self-esteem and status within the community in a supportive and positive environment. Qualified staff at Trak Furniture provide the necessary support that enables employees to work and be part of a team that provides essential services to Minda and the local community. Trak Furniture has been successful in transitioning supported employees into open employment.
