

VOLUNTEER ROLE DESCRIPTION-STRATEGIC MARKETING AND FUNDRAISING-CORPORATE

ORGANISATIONAL ENVIRONMENT:

Established in 1898, Minda is the largest non-government disability organisation in South Australia, supporting people with disability to thrive in their local environments as valued members of their communities.

Minda is stimulating growth and development opportunities for supported employees, creating pathways for young people through various day programs, providing a range of accommodation options and delivering training programs via our allied health team.

Today, Minda supports people to have choice in where they want to live, how they want to spend their time, where they want to work and how they want to live their lives. This is what we call person-centred thinking, and it aligns with Minda's vision, for people with disability to live enriched lives of their choosing.

SERVICE DELIVERY OBJECTIVE:

The Strategic Marketing and Fundraising Corporate Volunteer will operate within Minda's Strategic Marketing and Fundraising department, which is charged with creating and positioning a vibrant organisational brand, supporting greater market awareness of Minda and positioning it as a leader in the disability sector. In doing so, Minda aims to create further opportunity to increase support and generate income to improve the wellbeing of people supported by Minda, staff, volunteers and other key stakeholders.
